THE COMPLETE WAY OF LIFE

Assalam Alaikum warahmatuLlahi Wabarakatuh.

There is an urgent appeal to revive an Islamic founded magazine that was launched end of 2009 and has been shelved since 2012 after the 8th issue.

MyDeen magazine was established to promote awareness about Islam since its the complete way of life and to encourage Muslims to practice their Deen. It will be a vessel to inform the public about Islamic principles in everyday life and to actively interact with one another so as to empower the communities we live in economically, socially and spiritually.

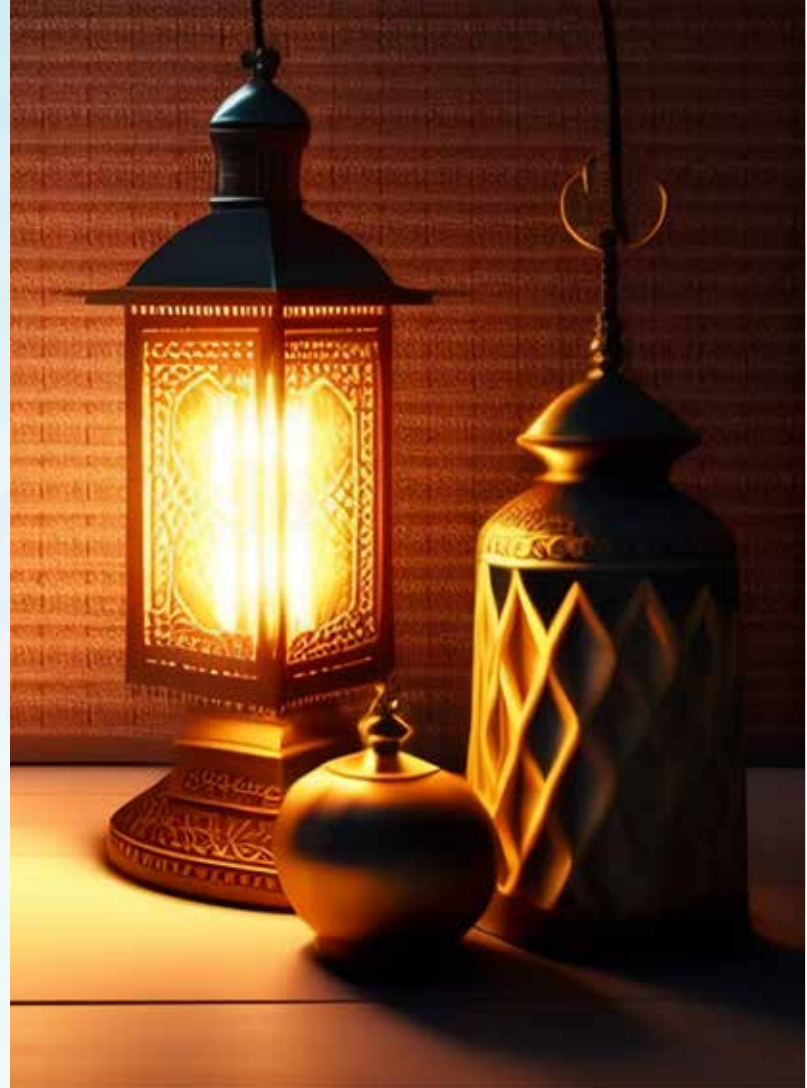

We need to generate income to sustain the magazine and leave a beneficial legacy for any strategic alliances we partner with.

Our content delivery will focus on akhlaq (good mannerisms) and steer clear of controversial issues plus focus on diversity and inclusion.

We are excited to partner with MyDeen kids from Canada that has been successfully engaging kids for the last 7 years and still going strong .

We shall localize their content and ride on their success. This will ensure continuity and relevance in distributing the magazine in schools & to parents. Bi idhni Rahman.

The founding members who still have the good will include Zuhra Mulumba, Imaam Kasozi, Jamil Sewanyana, Umar Kakonge, Musa Senyonga, Zahra Muhammed, Zaitun Saad and Hafiz Ndaula(R. I. P.)

Allahu Ghafuru Rahim

Our value proposition is Functionality/Relevance;
Monetary/Profitability;
Social responsibility;
Psychological/Sadakatul jaria; etc.
These will have to be expounded on in an open discussion to get a buy in from our partners as time goes by.
Ure cordially invited to be part of MyDeen Magazine.
May Allah Facilitate

THE MESSAGE TO THE WORLD ON GAZA

Khutbah by Ustadh Umar Muqaddam

 <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9e5Nwu0Jz5o>

DISPUTE

It was narrated from Umm Salamah (RA) that the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) said: "You refer your disputes to me and I am only human. Perhaps some of you may be more eloquent in presenting your case than others, so I rule in your favour because of what I hear from you. If I pass a judgement in favour of one of you that detracts from his brother's rights, then he should not take it, because it is a piece of fire that is given to him which he will bring forth on the Day Resurrection."

(Sunan Ibn Majah 2318, Book 13, Hadith 11)

Another wonderful reminder of the rights of others. We cannot stress it enough how important it is to know your rights and the rights of others, so you can fulfil your obligations to yourself, your families and to society. Do not take from the rights of someone else and avoid the piece of fire mentioned in this Hadith. If you can forgive others when there is a dispute, then your reward is with your Lord. If not, then ensure the process is fair and not to unnecessarily take from someone else simply because they couldn't present their argument as well as you.

It's a beautiful world out there! Have you explored and travelled it? Discover what's on offer from a family-friendly perspective with <https://sociableearth.com/>

Thank you for reading and have a blessed day, say Alhamdulillah before you leave and gain some rewards!

Assalamualaykum ,

We hope you are doing well in both eeman and health. This ephemeral life of ours has artful ways of crawling into our hearts and deflecting us from the truth of our existence.

The anxieties of providing for your family can consume you entirely, the approaching deadline of a project is all-encompassing, and an ongoing conflict within your family tears away a piece of your heart, little by little.

However, we cannot permit ourselves to neglect our Deen, on a count of our day-to-day worries and sorrows. To neglect your Deen is to violate yourself. There is a great deal of information on physical health, and a surplus of discussions on healthy eating and exercise.

In the chaos of living and surviving, we can easily lose track of ourselves, trying to persevere through another day and waking up the next morning (which is a daunting thought in itself).

"FORGIVE YOURSELF. I KNOW IT'S HARD.

Forgive yourself for not being perfect. For being more human than you ever wanted to be. For being more human than you thought was possible. I'm asking you to forgive yourself because that's the hardest forgiveness of all.

God? He forgives. Immediately sometimes, upon you asking Him. Ask Him, change your ways, and your forgiveness is guaranteed. You'll find Him there in front of you, Merciful and Loving, Coverer of all sins.

Forgiving yourself is harder.

What you did wrong embeds itself into your mind, drawing images that you will keep coming back to. And the images are not good, never flattering, never accurate. They are often worse, darker, more sinister than you deserve.

You will sink your teeth into everything your words, your hands, and your thoughts did. And they will haunt you, for years sometimes. They will haunt you until you believe that you are not worthy of God's grace. So you stop asking, not because He isn't there to forgive, but because you couldn't forgive yourself.

You are not your sins. Your sins do not invalidate all the good you've done. Sins are meant to happen so you can turn back to Him.

You are a soul that was created by God Himself. Deserving of warmth. Deserving to be held in loving arms. Deserving of a joy that is not cut off. Deserving of a tenderness that makes you feel safe.

He has honoured you with this life. And you deserve to live it with the conviction that He is with you, in good times and in painful times, when your faith is up and when it's down, when you're laughing and when you're crying.

He is with you, and He has not forsaken you.

So forgive yourself for being what He created you to be: human."

That's How I Think"

: Charting the Course to Shared Wisdom through Independent Thought

In a world buzzing with diverse opinions and perspectives, the ability to think independently stands as a cornerstone of personal empowerment. My journey into the concept of "That's how I think" was always fueled by the belief that everyone is entitled to their unique thoughts, and these thoughts should be respected, not attacked.

I believe we can listen to one another and respond to every thought with respect as it promotes a healthy exchange of ideas and fosters a culture of mutual understanding.

The way we relate daily with our thoughts shapes not only our individual experiences but also the collective knowledge of our communities. Imagine a world where every person values their ideas and welcomes the thoughts of others with respect, a world where the exchange of knowledge becomes a powerful catalyst for progress and coexistence.

Unlocking the power of Independent Thinking

Our individuality flourishes when we dare to embrace the uniqueness of our thoughts. It is not a call to isolation but an invitation to revel in the richness that comes from acknowledging the variety of perspectives within our minds. Independent thought becomes a catalyst for personal empowerment, as we learn to listen and digest our thoughts before we create room for outside perspectives.

Listen, listen to your ideas and possibly create a prototype of what might be the outcome. Engage more with those good at listening and always their response must not be judgmental but openminded. As we unleash the potential of independent thinking within ourselves, we are forging a path toward an empowered future. This journey positions each of us not merely as a participant but as a significant contributor to the progress.

The rhythm of Dialogue

Picture a world where conversations are not battlegrounds but fertile grounds for intellectual growth. The art of dialogue, when approached with respect and openness, transforming conversations into a symphony of ideas. Through the exchange of thoughts, we refine our understanding, challenge preconceptions, and build bridges that connect diverse minds.

From Independence to Interdependence

Independence in thought doesn't necessitate detachment; instead, it forms the foundation for a more profound interdependence. As we navigate the maze of ideas, we discover the beauty of learning from one another. Every unique perspective becomes a thread in the fabric of shared knowledge, weaving a fabric that transcends individual experiences.

Imagine a community where life hacks are shared like cherished secrets, and knowledge flows like a river. Embracing independent thought isn't just a personal choice; it's a commitment to contributing to the collective wisdom. By welcoming a mosaic of ideas, we unlock the door to innovation and uncover solutions that can propel us forward collectively.

That's How We Think

In conclusion, this journey into the realm of independent thought is an invitation to reflect on our own cognitive landscapes. How do we relate to our thoughts, and how willing are we to explore the landscapes of others? As we traverse this vast intellectual terrain together, remember: That's how we think.
